Finishing Well

Made in Heaven

Paula and William arrived at our church a couple of years ago. He, from a Unitarian background and she, from a charismatic one. They were living together in an inappropriate relationship and had many doubts and questions about the church and the stands we were taking, but God was working. The more they learned scripture the more they understood. The more they learned the Bible the more they started living right. They made a decision to do things right and started working towards having a relationship honorable to God. Praise the Lord, shortly after we celebrated our first wedding in the church. They are truly a beautiful couple and a match made in heaven. God honors us when we honor Him. May we all finish so well.

Truth Sets Free

We started our Bible Institute with Basic Doctrines and had 10 students. The spirit was great. We are going to offer the following: A) 1 year Bible Certificate, B) 2 year Associate Degree, and C) 3 year Divinity Degree. Everyone has been tremendously excited and is fired up about becoming students of the Bible. Please pray for them, as we continue, that God would raise up leaders capable of setting others free and Christians that are capable of finishing well.

Getting to Know You

We celebrated our Christmas holidays together with Victory Baptist Church, the church of my friend, Missionary Peter Putney. We had a great showing, seeing that they had to come from over an hour away by bus. We had great services, Christmas music specials, and lots of delicious food. The children played, we ate more than we should have, and we all got to know each other better. May we love each other to the end as the Scriptures command us.

Plucked From the Fire

Recently, a new family arrived at church. They were wounded, and looking for help. Their teenage girl after hearing the Gospel in our youth group decided to trust Christ. Praise God for another one plucked from the fire.
